Week 3 - I've Got Your Back

Discussion Guide

Do you have people in your life who have your back? Life has many different seasons, good and bad. Knowing you have people in your corner through it all is a great feeling. Did you know this is also how Jesus taught us to live? Having a group of people to do life with is an important part of following Jesus.

1. What is one of your best experiences being part of a team, school club, or organization?
2. Share a story of a time when you refused help, tried to do something on your own, and the results that produced.
3. If we are honest, we all default to “me-mode” sometimes, not wanting to let others be a part of our lives. However, we learn from God’s Word that doing life with others benefits us. Do you tend to lean more towards “me-mode” or “we-mode”? (Personal Study: Hebrews 10:24-25, Matthew 18:20, Proverbs 18:1-2, Proverbs 15:22)
4. Moving from “me-mode” to “we-mode” is not only prescribed in God’s Word, but it also has practical benefits. Describe a moment when you were thankful that people had your back, or a time when you had someone else’s back. (Personal Study: Luke 5:17-20)
5. Final Thought: the best part of being in a Life Group is learning to follow Jesus together. Your Life Group is where you encourage each other, pray for each other, teach each other, and help each other navigate life in a way that honors God. Take the last few minutes (this week and every week) to share with your group where each of you need help. Then pray together and encourage each other. Don’t miss this opportunity to have each other’s back.
