2010 Basic Requirements that a short term mission worker needs:

I understand and agree to the following principles:

1. Be at least 14 years of age with a parent and/or meet other trip specific age requirements, unless it is a Cove Student Ministry trip.
2. The Cove Church strongly encourages interested team members wanting to go on international mission trips to attend a regional trip before going on an international one.
3. Receive parental approval (for candidates under 18 years of age).
4. Attend all trip meetings. Absences must be cleared with the Trip Team Leader.
5. Will adhere to all deadlines. Including financial deadlines regardless of whether I pay individually the cost of the mission trip or raise financial support to cover the cost. All participants must abide by the deadlines for registration, deposits and payments. If you have any questions, please call the The Cove Church at 704.609.0959 and ask to speak to Lori Shrum or e-mail Lori @lshrum@covechurch.org.
6. Passport, vaccinations, and any medical prescription cost's are incurred by the team member and their financial responsibility. The costs are not associated in the trip cost or the responsibility of The Cove Church.

I have read the above and agree to the above policies, rules, and terms.

God's Pattern of Provision: Financial Support for Your Trip

Understanding the Biblical Precedent for Support Development:

So, you want to go on a mission trip, but you need to raise all or some of the money you need to be able to go? Rest assured that you are not the only one. You will also be in the good company of people like the Apostle Paul, who needed the support of the Church to carry out his ministry.

The Cove Church believes general financial support for your mission trip should be sought from friends and family members who 1) are believers and 2) that you have a close relationship with. The Cove Church does not support group fundraising of any kind such as car washes, magazine or candy sales. Your trip leader will supply you with a "sample" support letter to get you started on raising the funds needed for your trip.

You may have many questions and even some fears, but we believe that as you read and follow the steps outlined, below, trust in the Holy Spirit to guide and help you, you will be greatly encouraged. The following article provides the biblical rationale behind the practice of raising support. Once you have an understanding of that, you'll be better able to raise support with boldness and confidence. It is our prayer that in this process that you will see the faithfulness of God Who provides for the work that He calls us to do.

Developing a Vision:

Raising support is not about raising money; it's about sharing a vision. It's about sharing the excitement of God's call and the opportunity He has set before you; and it's about giving others a chance to participate in God's plan to reach the nations.

The basic principal you need to understand is that people are giving to the Lord (His work) and not to you personally. You need to have a sense of purpose when you ask—and there is no greater purpose than God's will or His work. Do you have a vision or idea of how the Lord may use you? God desires for all to enter His Kingdom and for every person to have a chance to hear about His mercy and forgiveness. If you help lead one person one step closer to Christ on this trip, then you are doing the greatest work on earth.

Support Raising is Biblical:

Throughout Scripture we find that God expects His people to support those involved in full-time service. He instituted a tithe as the means to support the Levites (Num. 18:24, Neh. 13:10-13). And throughout the history of Israel, God promised to bless those who invest in this work (Pro. 3:9-10, Mal. 3:10).

Paul said emphatically to the Corinthians, —The Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should receive their living from the gospel (1 Cor. 9:14). And John wrote to Gaius saying that it was a good thing to support missionaries because, —it is for the sake of the Name that they go out, receiving no help from the pagans (3 John 5-8).

At times, especially at turning points in his ministry, Paul explicitly asked other Christians and churches for financial support. When I go to Spain...I hope to have you assist me on my journey (Rom. 15:24). The original language here confirms that Paul was asking for monetary assistance.

Jesus had financial supporters. As a carpenter, Jesus could have funded his ministry by building furniture or repairing carts and tables. But as far as we know, He didn't. As Jesus went out ministering, He relied on people such as Mary, Martha and Lazarus who helped —support Him out of their own means (Luke 8:3).

Jesus gave specific directions to His disciples which forced them to depend on others for their needs. They were to accept gifts from others, as Jesus said,eating and drinking whatever they give to you; for the worker deserves his wages (Luke 10:4-7). A laborer in God's Kingdom is truly worthy of being paid for his service. The workers in the early church lived on a system of support similar to what God had established for the Levites.

In 1 Corinthians 9:14, the Apostle Paul writes, —In the same way, the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should receive their living from the gospel. He explains that God set up a system of financial support for His workers. He also writes that even though he had the right to be supported by the Corinthians, he chose to make tents. This was an exception, however, to Paul's usual method of ministry.

Including Others in the Mission:

Romans 10:14-15 speaks of the need for us to go and preach so that others might be saved. Verse 15 specifically asks "And how can they preach unless they are sent?" Have you considered that your trip, and the act of praying for and supporting you financially, may be the way someone else can fulfill part of God's call on their lives? Your trip may be the only mission trip they ever "go on" personally. By including others in your mission, you are giving them the opportunity to prayerfully consider how God would have them follow Him. Sending you may be the way that someone else can be obedient to what God is asking them to do.

Living by Faith Today:

All Christians need to live by faith (2 Cor. 5:7, Heb. 11:6), regardless of how they receive their finances. The bottom line is that you need to be willing to do whatever it is the Lord asks you to do. Raising support is a matter of obedience to God's word and calling, not of following your feelings. If God calls you to go on this mission, then He will provide everything you need to fulfill your ministry, including emotional strength and perseverance (1 Thess. 5:24).

FINANCIAL MEMO OF UNDERSTANDING:

1. Financial donations made to The Cove Church missions team accounts are not mine — they belong to God and have been given to The Cove Church in order to accomplish the mission's work of the church.
2. If, for some reason, I do not ultimately participate on the mission trip to which I have been accepted, I am responsible for any fees incurred as a result of my cancellation.
3. If I do not raise enough money to pay for my trip, I may not be able to go. Any money raised will be applied to current trip or materials needed.
4. If I raise an amount of money that exceeds my needs, remaining money will be dispersed to other team members in need or used by The Cove Church for other mission's ministries.
5. If, for some reason, I do not participate on the mission trip to which I have been accepted, I understand that the monies donated to my trip cannot be refunded to me or to the donors due to the non-profit status of The Cove Church.
6. In order to comply with the IRS, all checks for support of my trip must be made out to The Cove Church. Donors should write my name and the trip name in the memo line of their check.
7. If inappropriate behavior and/or the breaking of any team covenant or policies causes me to be sent home early from my mission trip as a disciplinary action, none of the money raised will be refunded to me or any donors.
8. If you are a minor and any inappropriate behavior and / or breaking of any team covenant policies occur you will be sent home at your parents and or guardian expense.
9. I will return any unused money from my on-field stipend (if given) to my team leader before leaving the airport upon my return.

I have read the above and agree to the above policies, rules, and terms.

2010 OutREACH Team Member "Code of Conduct" and Commitment

I support the mission statement of The Cove: ... we will introduce our friends to Jesus... I appreciate that OutREACH events are an important part of how we accomplish that mission and that these events are open to all who feel called to come along and serve, whether a Cove member or attender. I understand that all who participate in OutREACH events are expected to observe and adhere to the following standard of conduct during the entire duration of the event, including the travel time if a missions trip. As a participant in an upcoming OutREACH event, I understand and agree that:

1. I will pray for the team leaders and give them my undivided support. I will follow them without criticism or delay. A spirit of unity, care and concern for my teammates, and gentleness will guide my thoughts and actions throughout this event
2. I will adhere to any dress code established for the event at all times. I understand that dress codes vary widely depending on the local culture and what is considered appropriate attire.
3. I will not leave the team or the vicinity of our work unless directed or allowed to do so by team leaders.
4. I agree that contact with members of the opposite sex should be limited and controlled, so that we reflect the light of God and avoid even the appearance of inappropriate behavior.
5. I will not participate in activities or visit any establishment or place which may be seen by others as inconsistent with a Christian lifestyle.
6. I will not use profanity at any time.
7. I understand that I cannot smoke or consume tobacco products at any time.
8. I will not possess or consume alcoholic beverages or assist others in doing so.
9. I will not possess, use, or distribute any drug or substance for which possession or distribution is unlawful either in North Carolina or at our destination.
10. I will abide by any additional guidelines which may be deemed necessary by the team leaders during the event.

2010 The Cove Church – Liability Release Form

Release of all Claims

In consideration for being accepted by The Cove Church for participation in OutREACH events from January 2010 through December 2010, I do hereby release, forever discharge and agree to hold harmless The Cove Church and the directors thereof from any and all liability, claims or demands for personal injury, sickness or death, as well as property damage and expenses, of any nature whatsoever which may be incurred by the undersigned and the child-participant that occur while said child is participating in the above described trip or activity. Furthermore, I hereby assume all risk of personal injury, sickness, death, damage and expense as a result of participation in recreation and work activities involved therein. Further, authorization and permission is hereby given to said church to furnish any necessary transportation, food and lodging for this participant.

The undersigned further hereby agree to hold harmless and indemnify said church, its directors, employees and agents, for any liability sustained by said church as the result of the negligent, willful or intentional acts of said participant, including expenses incurred attendant thereto.

(If the participant has not attained the age of 18 years):

We (I) are the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of this participant, and hereby grant our (my) permission for him/her to participate fully in said trip, and hereby give our (my) permission to take said participant to a doctor or hospital and hereby authorize medical treatment, including but not in limitation to emergency surgery or medical treatment, and assume the responsibility of all medical bills, if any.

Further, should it be necessary for the participant to return home due to medical reasons, disciplinary action or otherwise, we (I) hereby assume all transportation costs.
