

Tonight, we wrapped up our series “Better for it” by talking about a theme that is huge in the book of Proverbs: being correctable.

In the message we talked through the power of our words and acknowledged that we all can be careless with our words at times. Below are some scriptures and questions you can use to continue the conversation with your child.

If you listen to constructive criticism, you will be at home among the wise. If you reject discipline, you only harm yourself Proverbs 15:31-32

Whoever stubbornly refuses to accept criticism will suddenly be destroyed beyond recovery. Proverbs 29:1

How do you typically respond to being criticized?

How is rejecting feedback harmful to us?

What is an area of your life that could benefit from constructive criticism?
