

Tonight, we continued our series in the book of Proverbs by talking about the words that we use and what they say about us.

In the message we talked through the power of our words and acknowledged that we all can be careless with our words at times. Below are some scriptures and questions you can use to continue the conversation with your child.

What was your favorite part of the night? What stood out to you from the night?

Loves of God think before they speak, but the careless blurt out wicked words meant to cause harm. Proverbs 15:28

In what ways do you tend to be careless with your words?

How would thinking before you speak make a positive impact in your life?
