WEEK FOUR: SOMETHING BIGGER THAN ME – STUDY GUIDE

- 3) Trust is key in following the plan God has for your life, even when you want to go in a different direction. Sometimes it even comes when you can't make sense of it all, or the road ahead seems precarious. Read Proverbs 3:5-7. What kind of relationship does God want with you?

- 4) It is easy to veer away from the direction that God would have you go when you rely on your own wisdom or experience. Read 1 Corinthians 2:1-10. What's the difference between relying on earthly wisdom and trusting God's power? Why might relying on God's power seem unconventional to others?

How Does This Apply?

- 5) Sometimes it's easy to give in to the pressure of the crowd even when you know it's not what God has called you to do. Allow God's Spirit to fuel your direction rather than seeking man's approval. There will always be a naysayer distracting you from your calling. What expectation(s) are you facing, or have faced, that might be dragging you in one direction, yet knowing God might be directing you differently?

WEEK FOUR: SOMETHING BIGGER THAN ME – STUDY GUIDE

- 6) God wants to do something through you that's bigger than you can see or imagine. Trust God's voice through times of unmet expectations of the people around you. In what ways are you faithfully trusting God's power rather than your own wisdom?

- 7) Throughout this series, we have been talking about change and what that looks like in our lives. Hopefully, you've allowed God to identify some areas where you have started to change. Remember, God is more about changing you than He is about changing your circumstances. Have you seen your heart begin to change throughout this series? Why or why not?

- 8) Sometimes following God means living contrary to what makes sense to the people around us. It's easy to forget that you don't need man's approval if God has already approved what He wants you to do. You don't work to get approval. You work because God has already approved you. Read Galatians 1:6-10, 2 Timothy 2:15 and Colossians 3:23-24. How does your life currently reflect these verses?
